

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. The awards are not open to employees or officers of The Grand, Business South, or judges.
2. Category sponsors cannot enter the category they sponsor.
3. The Grand and Business South place high value on the Awards. Entrants must disclose any issues that may compromise the integrity of the Awards or cause the business to discontinue in the next year. These issues may include legal action, law changes, possible loss of funding, or other risks.
4. The Supreme Winners from 2020 are unable to enter the 2022 Awards. Category winners are unable to enter the same category.
5. All entries must be received by 5.00pm on Monday 29 August 2022.
6. By entering these awards, you agree to Business South and sponsors having access to your contact details.
7. You need to include a statement of financial viability to show that your business is sound and/or growing, should you be shortlisted for an interview with the judges.
8. By entering the awards, you agree to your business and its representatives being photographed/filmed/interviewed for promotional purposes, including promotion at the Grand Business South Awards ceremony. Exception may be made to this condition if advised in writing to Business South.
9. All entries must include a brief business biography which includes a history of your business and highlights of what it does (150 words maximum). You agree that this biography may be used for promotional purposes in relation to the Grand Business South Awards.
10. All entries are judged against the individual award category criteria.
11. There is no cost to enter the Grand Business South Awards 2022.
12. Any business of any size located in the Otago and Southern region is eligible to enter.
13. Entrants must have been trading for 12 months or more as at 31 March 2022.
14. If your organisation is part of a larger organisation you must be able to demonstrate that you function as a separate business unit.
15. A franchise is judged on its own individual/independent merit and business success not as part of the franchisor.
16. Each business may enter one sector category and up to two business practice categories.

CONFIDENTIALITY

1. All awards entry documentation and official entry forms are treated as confidential.
2. All judges sign a confidentiality agreement.
3. Judges are assigned in a way to avoid conflicts of interest.
4. Applicants are not expected to provide or reveal proprietary information regarding products, processes or services.
5. Information regarding participation, any awards, or successful strategies may be released only after written approval from the entrant.
